

MOPAR, with a more than 75 years of history, is the global aftersales brand for FCA and reference for services, customer care and genuine parts and accessories.

Are you interested in having an insight into the aftersales world of a successful automotive Group?

We are looking for graduate engineers who are passionate about the automotive sector, in order to develop future talents.

Seize this opportunity to bring your qualities to light.

EMEA MOPAR ENGINEERING GRADUATES

PERSONAL AND PROFESSIONAL REQUIREMENTS:

- Master's degree in Engineering (preferably mechanical, automotive and industrial/logistics) with excellent Academic track record
- Fluency in English (at least B2)
- Recent graduation
- Flexibility and willingness to relocate
- Full commitment, aptitude for teamwork and drive for innovation
- Problem solving and analytical skills
- Results orientation
- Engagement and passion for spare parts and accessories and the technical services related to the automotive industry is considered a plus.

ARE YOU INTERESTED?

If the position matches your skills set and experience level, please send your application documentations to: recruitinghrteam@fcagroup.com

We will take into consideration only detailed CVs written in English